TRACTION MEN NOT SATISFIEL

Members of Union Declared to Be Opposed to Present Conditions.

COMPANIES SURPRISED

Officials Say Majority of Men Who Present Demands for Better Pay Are Discharged Employes.

Members of the newly formed union o local street railway employes denied last night the statements of the heads of the Washington Railway and Electric and the Capital Traction companies to the effect that their men are satisfied. 'They may believe what they say, but I knew from experience and from mingling with the men that they are not satisfied with present working condi-tions," said one member of the union. J. H. Hanna, general manager of the Capital Traction Company, denied last night that two of the three men who presented the demands to the Capital Traction Company for the union were discharged on that account. One of them, he said, was dismissed two weeks ago, and the other was ordered dismissed before the company knew of the demands. The announcement yesterday morning that the motormen and conductors of the city were secretly organized into Division No. 689, of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employes came as a complete sur

The demands submitted yesterday call for wages of 30 cents an hour, for shorter hours, and the establishment of a board of arbitration.

The maximum wage paid by the Capital Traction Company is 221-2 cents an hour, and by the Washington Railway and Electric Company & cents an hour. Rezin Orr, treasurer of the international said 1,000 have been enrolled in the ocal union. George E. Hamilton, president of the Capital Traction Company, and Clarence P. King, of the Washington Railway and Electric Company, issued statements yes-terday afternoon declaring that they have been willing to discuss with their employes any complaints of treatment, but that they were not aware of any dissatisfaction on the part of the men

It is expected the companies will make known their replies to the demands in a few days.

In its statement the Washington Railway and Electric Company says three of the four men who presented the de-mands to them were discharged em-

Only the night before the demands were made the Washington Railway and Electric Company voluntarily increased its rate of contribution to the employes' relief association, and also reduced the retirement law, so that the men may now retire after fifteen years of service in stead of twenty years, as heretofor.
